*Students are assigned by last name unless they have an IEP

*Coming to HS means:

- * Being Accountable from the start
 - * Your grades are a part of your Grade Point Average all 4 years
 - * All HS coursework will count towards qualifying you for Scholarships
- * Starting to plan for your future
 - * Colleges WILL see all your final grades from 9th grade
 - * Honors/AP classes=University
 - * AP for 9th grade: AP Bio, AP Comp Science (high math ability) & AP Human Geography expect 30min-1hr of HW every night, should have FSA level of a 4 or 5
- * Do your best on your standardized exams (FSA Reading, EOC)
 - * Your scores will determine class placement (Intensive Language/English double block class)

* Course selection

* English-Standard, Honors & Gifted

* No required summer reading but check LakeBrantley.com for recommended reading

* Math- If you have a C or a D in Algebra 1 or Geometry, consider repeating it next year

* MUST TAKE 4 CREDITS OF MATH IN GRADES 9-12

* Science- 4 credits required (You must take Biology)

*Course selection Cont'd.

- *History- Not required but you can take World Cultural Geography or AP Human Geography
- *Personal Fitness & PE (see pg. 19 for PE options)
- *1 Performing/Fine art credit (music, art, speech, DIT, dance and theatre just to name a few)
- *See page 7 in your curriculum guide for a 4 year plan and all Graduation requirements

* Electives & World Languages

- * List your electives in order of priority- there is no guarantee so be sure to give at least 3 alternates
- * Foreign Language is not required for graduation but 2 years of the same language is required for University admission and Bright Futures eligibility
 - * Need to have a level 3 or higher on your FSA Reading test to take a world language.
 - * If you have a C or D in your HS level foreign language class now we strongly recommend repeating it
